The New Year brings a new format for our Annual Public Policy Symposium You've told us you want to hear more from Senate President Steve Sweeney, and this is your opportunity to hear his plans for the 215th Legislative Session and ask him questions directly.

The Symposium will also feature a Public/Private Panel Discussion on "The NJ Comeback: Incentives for Attracting & Retaining Jobs and Tenants". "Business Incentives" has become a hotly debated topic in New Jersey, and our discussion will cover everything from the details of the new Grow NJ Assistance program, "net benefits" tests, the "fine print" of qualifying for programs, and engaging brokers and tenants in the process to the future of business incentives in New Jersey, financial and otherwise

Our outstanding panel of public/private speakers will include: Caren Franzini, NJ EDA; Tracye McDaniel, Choose New Jersey (invited); Ted Zangari, Sills Cummis & Gross, PC; David Oppenheimer, CB Richard Ellis; Tim Lizura, NJ EDA; Lauren Moore, NJ Business Action Center, and Mayor John McCormac, Woodbridge. The panel will engage in an interactive dialogue that will give the audience with a comprehensive understanding of the life cycle of a development project relative to New Jersey's business climate, tax policy and incentive programs (financial and otherwise), as well as lessons learned and likely trends.
